Capital Cranfield Strengthens Trustee Team

Capital Cranfield, the Independent Pension Trustee company, today announces the appointment of Vernon Holgate as a new Director. Vernon's role will include acting as a professional trustee, working in particular with the unit of Capital Cranfield dedicated to pension scheme wind-ups. He has extensive experience of scheme wind-up work having specialised in this field for 15 years. He has also held a number of key positions with major pension schemes and worked extensively on a number of high profile cases involving appointments made by the Pensions Regulator. Prior to joining Capital Cranfield he worked as an independent trustee with Thomas Eggar.

Mike Anthony, Chairman of Capital Cranfield, said "Vernon has a considerable track record in trusteeship which complements and builds on our existing strengths. He is one of the leading experts in the complex area of pension scheme wind-ups, and will enable us to respond to the growing demand for expertise in this area. Vernon will be a valuable addition to our Board".

Vernon Holgate said "I am absolutely thrilled about the opportunity to join an independent trustee firm I have held in such high regard for many years. I look forward to making a positive contribution to their amazing success".
